Increase in Number of Slam Dwellers

2268. SHRI S. S. AHLUWALIA : Will the Minister of URBAN DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that there is a constant increase in the number oi slum dwellers in almost all the cities in the country;

(b) whether Government provide funds to civic bodies for slum clearance and if so, the amount provided to each of the State during ths years 1986-87, 1987-88 and 1988-89; and

(c) what other remedial measures Government propose to take to check this trend? ....

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF URBAN DEVELOPMENT (SHRI DALBIR SINGH): (a) There is no agency at the Centre or the State level to conduct census of slum population on an all India basis. It is, however, recognised that with the growth of urbanisation there is b tendency of increase in slum-population.

(b) The present policy of the Government emphasises on environmental improvement of slums in situ rather than their clearance and relocation. Basic amenities are provided in urban slums under the State wtor scheme of EIUS. Appropriate projects are formulated and implemented by the State Governments in accordance with their needs and priorities and funds are provided in the State plans.

(c) Apart from the curative steps like the scheme of EIUS, slum upgradation programmes in various cities under the World Bank assist^ 1 projects, provision of special grant oi Rs. 100-00 crores to the Government of Maharashtra for tackling, the acute housing and slum problems in Bombay, the Government envisages to chock the rate of growth of vltntM also As a preventive step the centrally sponsored scheme of IDSMT envisages to develop small and medium towns so that they can act as counter magnets and reduce the migrations to the major cities.

(c) whether consumer cooperatives have also been involved in the process; if so, the nature of involvement in detail; and

(d) how far their involvement has heloed th$_e$ public, Government, as well as the States/Union Territories?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE MINISTRY OF FOOD AND CIVIL SUPPLIES (SHRI D. L. BAITHA): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) The Central Government has assumed responsibility for procure-, ment and supply of seven essential commodities, namely, rice, wheat, levy sugar, imported edible oils, kerosene, soft r>oke and controlled clcth through the Public Distribution system. The responsibility for distribution r.f the-:e items through the network of fair pr.ee shops k'ests with the Stdte Governments/UT Admin^lrations. With a view to ensuring^that these items are brcusht within the reach of the common man, States/UTs have been advised from time to time to men more fair price shops. It has also been suggested to States/UTs to introduce mobile vans to cover the hilly, remote, far-flung, desert, iribai and inaccessible areas. Accordingly, there are j about 3.47 lakh fair price shops in the country. Since August, 1987, 7736 additional FPS have been opened in drought/flood affected areas and 357 mobile vans were introduced for selling es.:er/Jal commodi ies to the peop'e in these areas.

ic) and (d) Alj Sn;e Governments/ UT$_S$ have been advised to give preference to Consumer Cooperatives for opening fair price shops. About 2C per cent of tiie fe-ur price shops in the country are run by the cooperatives. Central Government also provides financial assistance th-ough the State Governments to consumer cooperative societies for setting up of new retail outlets for distribution of consumer goods. In the rural areas the primary agricultural credit societies are provided financial assistance under a Centr-ly Sponsored Scheme for undertakin?, the distributi-jii of essential consumer goods.
